CHAPTER 418

AN ACT to amend 201.04 (18) of the statutes, relating to supplemental coverages in automobile policies.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

201.04 (18) of the statutes is amended to read:

201.04 (18) MEDICAL PAYMENTS AND OTHER SUPPLEMENTAL INSURANCE. Against expense, * * * other than loss of time * * *, *in connection with the kinds of insurance specified in subs. (5), (6), (10), (13) and (17), and against loss, damage and expense, including loss of time, in connection with the kind of insurance specified in sub. (15), arising out of * * * bodily injury to, or sickness, disease or death of, either or both the insured and others, by accident, with respect to which the insurer assumes an obligation to pay * * * irrespective of the insured's legal liability * * * therefor.* The requirements applicable to the insurance specified in sub. (4), including the provisions of * * * ss. 204.31 and 204.32, shall not apply when the insurance authorized by this subsection is assumed as a part of or as supplemental to the insurance specified in any other subsection of s. 201.04 as permitted in s. 201.05 (3), provided such loss, damage or expense arises out of a hazard directly related to such other insurance.

Approved July 2, 1953.
